FACTS:

- Shachar and Ilana married in February 2016, separated in December 2021, and divorced civilly in September 2024. They have four children together.
- Shachar has been refusing to give his wife a get, a Jewish bill of divorce.

- The Association of Chabad Rabonim of Illinois also issued a letter in support of distancing measures against Shachar. This letter was later signed by Rabbi Yosef Yeshaya Braun and Rabbi Avorohom Osdoba of the Crown Heights Beis Din.
- The Beis Din of Crown Heights issued letter of their own, urging the public to completely disengage from Shachar, including barring him from davening in shuls, inviting him to Shabbos or Yom Tov meals, or socializing with him.
- Jewish Law forbids (שו"ע יו"ד של"ד ואה"ע קנ"ד): conducting business with him, engaging him in conversation, counting him towards a minyan, providing him with food or drink.
