

ORA Summer Internship

Job Description & Qualifications:

The Organization for the Resolution of Agunot (ORA) invites current undergraduate students to apply to our 2023 Summer Internship. This internship offers a unique opportunity for students to work on projects alongside our professional administrative team. ORA's work engages with a variety of topics, including Jewish law and the halachic process, matrimonial and family law, alternative dispute resolution, domestic abuse, community outreach, grassroots activism, and more. ORA's summer intern will play an integral role on the ORA team, working closely with current staff members to advance and spread the organization's mission.

Project areas may include:

- Campaigns: Work with the ORA team to prepare our upcoming Holiday campaign, including creative and writing components.
- Social Media: Propose original content for ORA's social media platforms including Facebook, Instagram, and ORA's website.
- Graphic Design: Developing new designs for ORA marketing materials such as brochures.
- Development: Create materials to thank ORA's donors
- Data Entry: Upload and organize data in ORA's CRM

Who You Are:

- Self-motivated, organized, and passionate about ORA's work
- Adept at social media and marketing (graphic design experience a plus!)
- Strong familiarity with Facebook, Instagram, Twitter
- Creative thinker, critical eye, attention to detail
- Independent worker
- Excellent interpersonal, oral, and communication skills
- Sensitive to Orthodox communal standards and the halachic process

Who We Are:

The Organization for the Resolution of Agunot (ORA) seeks to eliminate abuse from the Jewish divorce process. ORA works within the parameters of Jewish law and civil law to advocate for the timely and unconditional issuance of a get. ORA believes that the protracted refusal to issue or receive a get is a form of domestic abuse which must never be tolerated. ORA seeks to foster a Jewish community in which a get is never used as a weapon. ORA pursues its mission through agunah case advocacy, early intervention programs, and educational initiatives for agunah prevention.

Time Commitment:

- 15 to 25 hours per week in the ORA office in Teaneck, NJ and remotely.

Application Process:

To apply, please send a resume to Jennifer Lankin, Assistant Director, at apply@getORA.org. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis, but special consideration will be given to applications received by Sunday, April 16, 2023.
